Next Ka Leo To Be 'Sold' To Aid Fund

By STANLEY TOYAMA
Ka Leo Sports Editor

Kickoff day for the Greta Andersen fund raising campaign is set for this Friday, it was announced yesterday by Ralph Aoki, general chairman.

To aid in the collection of voluntary student contributions, Friday's issue of Ka Leo will be "sold," with members of the Andersen committee and Ka Leo staff serving as "news hawks."

CHAIRMAN of the campus collection committee is Yoshio Shibuya.

Francis Bowers, chairman of the kickoff day rally committee, promises a noon hour program full of color and entertainment. Gay Hawaiian music will highlight the program.

CHARLEY ODA and his committee are working on publicity. Plans call for an extensive downtown campaign after every student has had an opportunity to contribute to the drive on campus, with Forrest Murphy in charge.

Serving as general secretary of the Andersen committee is Sachi Oyama.

Overwhelming Vote Approves Mural Project

BULLETIN

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., May 10 (Special to Ka Leo)—Jean Charlot today officially confirmed his willingness to paint a mural for the University of Hawaii, following an announcement that students of the university had voted overwhelmingly in favor of giving the mural to the school as a combined class gift.

The new University of Hawaii administration building will have a wall mural painted by Jean Charlot, famed muralist and fresco artist.

This was the overwhelming dictate of student opinion as determined in the recent plebiscite conducted on campus through a questionnaire system.

ACCORDING TO the official tally reported by Kats Miho, Senior class president who directed the plebiscite, out of 711 voting, 637 favored the project while 59 indicated negatively. Fifteen ballots were tabbed void.

The breakdown according to classes follows: senior, 214 for and 16 against; junior, 179 for and 26 against; sophomore, 171 for and 11 against; and freshman, 73 for and 6 against.

THUS, WITH the assurance of the students, each class will donate $200 toward the painting fund. The overall expense for the project has been estimated at $1200 ($200 for incidental expenses and $1000 for the fee).

The deficit of $400 will be covered by soliciting contributions from UH alumni groups, Miho said.

ALREADY, MR. Ben Norris, art department head, has approached Mrs. Fred Lam, prominent alumni member who in turn spoke to several other persons about the project.

Rubin Leaves At 9 Tonight

President Barry Rubin leaves tonight at 9 from Honolulu airport for Sun Valley, Idaho, where he will attend a four day convention of the Pacific Student Presidents Association.

In addition to convention business, Rubin will also tour several universities in the Los Angeles area while enroute back to Honolulu.

He is expected to return home Thursday morning, May 19.

Convocation 10:30 To Open Campus Day; Kono, Ivy Orator, Is Principal Speaker

By KEICHI IKEDA
Ka Leo Staff Reporter

Activities ranging from fashion shows and orations to baseball will mark Campus day activities slated for May 20, according to a tentative program released by general chairman Robert Katayama.

The day will begin with a convocation at the front entrance of Hemenway hall at 10:30. A variety show, presentation of awards, introduction of ASUH officers, and a speech by Hideto Kono, ivy orator of the Senior class, will highlight the program.

CLUB CONCESSION booths will also open at 10:30 and will close at 3. After "ransacking" the booths, still-hungry individuals will be able to indulge in a pie eating contest and soda drinking contest from 12 to 1 at the Hemenway hall patio.

Beginning at 1:30 a fashion show and tall tale contest will be held in room 5 of Hemenway hall.

THE TC FIELD will be the center of activity at 2 when a baseball doubleheader featuring faculty versus ASUH council and alumni against students will begin. To insure "fair play," Ka Leo editors will umpire the game.

For those who become annoyed with the umpiring, a panel discussion on "Job Opportunities" will be conducted at 3 at Hemenway hall.

Governors Vote To Refurnish Hall

The Hemenway board of governors recently voted to allocate part of the $5000 freshman contribution to furnish the lounge and room 4 with new rattan furniture and to provide tables and chairs for the upstairs dining room.

Joseph M. Skorpen, UH treasurer, advised BOG to allot $425 from the sum to make room 11 sound proof.

ANSWER TOMORROW

'Exemption' Fate Lies In UH Senate's Lap

By TOMI KAIZAWA
Ka Leo Managing Editor

At the moment, it's anybody's guess as to the outcome of the issue concerning final exam exemption for seniors. The answer hinges on the decision the UH senate reaches at its meeting tomorrow, 4:15 p.m., at SS105.

Discussion on the question is expected to follow an outlined letter presented to the senate and previously to the council of deans by the senior class cabinet.

THE CONDITIONS upon which the cabinet based its request for exemption include:

1. The student shall be eligible for graduation in June.
2. The student shall have a grade point average of "C" or better.
3. The exemption shall be left to the choice of the individual instructors and students.
4. The exemption shall be announced not earlier than a week before finals, i.e., instructors to individual students.

ALSO OUTLINED were arguments which might arise against exemption.

One concerned the possibility that seniors might slacken in their studies and consequently lower the standard of the university.

THIS POINT was rebuttled on the assumption that there are seniors who aspire to continue school and others who hope to seek employment after graduation. These persons "will not slacken their study since it is important for them to integrate their semester of work," it was pointed out.

In addition, the letter stated that it is unlikely that the university's standard will be lowered "merely because there is no check on the students' learning for the last six weeks of the senior year."

AND TOO, "raising or lowering of standards" is determined in terms of the positive work a student accomplishes after graduation, the rebuttal continued.

Another argument challenging exam exemption was stated thus: "That in many courses the finals are extremely important."

REFUTING this point was a statement saying that the third condition of the exemption showed that any action would be at the discretion of the instructor.

The cabinet's letter also brought up the fact that if final exams are given to determine the student's scholastic standing in his class, "it serves no real purpose, for an instructor teaching seniors in advanced courses should be able to determine that fact at the end of 15 weeks."

Campus Day Dance Cancelled By Council

The ASUH council at its special meeting last Friday voted 9-4 in favor of dropping the Campus Day dance because of conflict with two other dances scheduled for the same weekend.

The dances concerned are the Saber and Chain ball scheduled for May 20, and the Frosh formal slated for the 21st.

THE ACTION was recommended in a letter to the council by Robert Katayama, Campus Day chairman and member of the Saber and Chain organization.

The motion, made by Denis Wong ('50), was passed in spite of strong opposition voiced by Councilman Dewey Kim ('50) and ASUH Vice President Ralph Aoki.

EARLIER IN the meeting the council unanimously approved an appropriation of $5 to replate and engrave the Rainbow Relay perpetual trophy.

At Aoki's suggestion, the council voted in favor of a get-together with BOG and ICC "to promote harmony and cooperation among the three groups."

The council also voted to permit Hung Chee Tom to begin his term as ASUH representative to BOG immediately instead of June 1.

Lau Reelected BOG Chairman; Helen Matsui Chosen Assistant

Howard Lau, past chairman of the Hemenway hall board of governors, was reelected to the position for a second term, Mrs. Helene Fujita, executive secretary, announced recently.

Elected to serve as vice chairman was Helen Matsui, who will also head the house and rules committee.

Dixon Mugiishi and Henry Nachtsheim were chosen chairmen of the program and budget committees, respectively.

LECTURES TOMORROW — "The new look in labor relations" will be presented by Dr. Harold S. Roberts at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Farrington hall. Dr. Roberts' talk will conclude this year's Wednesday evening lecture series. The public is invited. (Ka Leo Photo)

FREAK SLIP UH Janitor Has Accident

Honolulu police Friday were investigating a freak accident in which Charles Medeiros, of the UH janitorial staff, was sent to Queen's hospital with serious abrasions and a possible fractured vertebrae.

According to Mr. Frank Hinton, superintendent of grounds and buildings, Medeiros allegedly slipped from a UH truck which was leaving Moiliili quarry Friday morning.

Queen Of Queens?

ANOTHER QUEEN ON THE SCENE—In the above bevy of local beauties might be a queen and two attendants who will be selected to reign over the BAC-sponsored AAU indoor swimming meet, which is slated at the UH pool May 18, 19, and 21. The winners will be chosen on the basis of how many tickets are sold in their names. In back row (l. to r.) are Marvis Chun, Jeanne Konishi, Lily Yuen, Merrie Stacey, and Bobbie Davis. Foreground (l. to r.) are Joan Flath, Momi Mookini, Gwen Botelho, Priscilla Freedman, and Ah Lan McDonald.

As We See It...

Decision Of Momentous Import

Tomorrow the university senate meets to decide the fate of final exam exemption for members of the graduating class, present and future.

The council of deans, which had originally received the seniors' request, conveniently shifted the burden to the senate to render a verdict.

Made up of full and associate professors, deans, department and acting department chairmen, the senate is on the proverbial spot. There is no question about that.

In and out of that august body are staunch proponents and equally staunch opponents of this controversial item. We trust that the bulk of the senate representation is open minded, will weigh both sides carefully, and then vote on merits and merits alone.

So far as this newspaper is concerned, after hearing arguments pro and con finals exemption, we cannot but whole heartedly support the plan put forth by the class of '49. (See news story on page 1.)

The seniors have advanced a logical and equitable request to the administration. Their program gives evidence of progressive thinking along educational lines. Final exams for seniors as the situation stands now are archaic holdovers from yesteryear.

The senators have it within their power to render a momentous decision tomorrow. They can set an example of progress which other universities will be prone to follow.

It's Entirely Up To You

For the second time in its long history, Ka Leo will be "sold" to the students and other campus readers when next Friday rolls around.

Last year the paper was "sold" (through voluntary contributions) to raise funds to send Coach Soichi Sakamoto to London and the Olympics. This year the drive is in connection with the Greta Andersen campaign.

When the news hawks approach you Friday, remember you are entitled to your paper, but contributions of any amount will be gratefully accepted.

Letters From The Readers

EX-UH'ER WRITES FROM GERMANY

EDITOR KA LEO:

May I extend through the "Voice of Hawaii" my congratulations to the elected officers of the ASUH for the coming year. I'm sure Barry Rubin, Ralph Aoki, Teruko Tokunaga, and Frank Watase will guide the ship of state admirably.

Another "Skaal!" for the Real Deans. My friend Epy Yadao came through as I had expected.

I have read with interest the project to enroll Furuhashi and Andersen at the "U." May I reiterate what John Tsukano may have said, that Miss Andersen would be a great asset to the university as a student as well as a swimmer.

When we met her in Copenhagen last summer, little did I realize that she would be approached so soon. Right on the ball, there!

I hope to see her this summer and will do my best to put the Islands in her heart.

Thanks much for the little space and rest assured that your paper is read from corner to corner here at the largest Air-Lift base in western Germany.

HITS ELECTION OF JUNIOR OFFICERS

EDITOR KA LEO:

In regard to the recent election of Junior officers, I think those few candidates for President who dropped out of the race the last minute leaving only one name on the ballot should be reprimanded. They were given questionnaires well beforehand in which they were to state definitely whether they would run or not.

If they did fill out these questionnaires, they certainly don't know their own responsibilities. If they did not answer definitely one way or the other, the Sophomore council should also be blamed for printing their names as candidates in this paper, thereby giving the misconception that we were having a competitive election.

—A SOPHOMORE

PLAUDITS FOR MAY DAY SUCCESS

EDITOR KA LEO:

The Ke Anuenue sorority would like to express its heartiest thanks to all those students, faculty, and friends who helped make our May Day program a success.

Special thanks to the dancers: Edmee Jones, Betty Lou Yuen, Frances Thompson and Maureen; to singers: Anna Leong, Jackie Wiegman, and Mona Kam. Special thanks also to the group that went to pick ti leaves and to the boys who helped decorate Saturday morning.

We would also like to give thanks to Sohei Yamate, William Char, Shinye Gima, and Sammy Lee for the splendid work done on the elections and publicity for the May Day program.

Thanks also go to Ka Leo for the excellent news coverage.

—KE ANUENUE

•While plaudits are being handed out so generously, we'd like to toss a bouquet to Nellie Stewart, who served as general chairman for UH's colorful May Day spectacle. A major portion of the celebration's success can be attributed to her tireless travail.—EDITOR.

'AN HONOR, A RESPONSIBILITY ...'

EDITOR KA LEO:

An honor, a responsibility was given to each of us, the 1949-50 Sophomore class officers, in the April 29 election, and we would like to express our gratitude to the 1949-50 sophomores via Ka Leo.

We thank the future sophs for the honor of being elected to lead our class, and we will strive to meet the challenge of the responsibility entrusted to us.

We are confident that our class will be the best soph class UH has seen!

IT PAYS TO BE PRESIDENT—SOMETIMES

The job of a president entails a lot of grief, headaches, sleepless nights, and just plain hard work. But that doesn't mean presidents can't and don't find time for moments of levity and relaxation.

Harry Truman manages on occasion to slip away from the tumult of Washington, to bask in the golden sunshine of Florida. Former President FDR used to hop on his special yacht for a few days of deep sea fishing whenever he felt the need for changing the official environment.

Tonight, when ASUH President Barry Rubin boards his plane for Sun Valley and the PSPA convention, he too will discover in due time that being a president is not all work and no play.

According to information received from William H. Folsom, co-host of the convention, the four-day gathering promises to be one of the most colorful extravaganzas ever staged by PSPA.

In addition to the regular grind of business matters, including speeches by six prominent educators, attorneys, law enforcement agents, and governmental heads, Sun Valley will be the scene of frolicking and rollicking, the likes of which Hollywood might do well to incorporate into a flicker.

The delegates from 61 colleges and universities will stay at Challenger Inn, which was pictured in "Sun Valley Serenade," a few years back.

Those who saw the movie will recall the waiters on ice skates, serving guests around the rink.

Along the entertainment line, Mr. Folsom notes "a two hour musical stage show, filming of the Rose Bowl movie, a dance, a swimming party, horseback trip, and a midnight ice skating party."

But that's not all. Also slated are "a ride on one of the biggest ski lifts in the world, informal parties, and a big banquet and 'Good Luck' party."

On top of everything, the conventioners have a Western Bar-B-Que in store for them.

All this in four days, mind you.

When not engaged in carefree activities, the delegates will settle down to more serious affairs. Listed on the agenda are discussions relating to student finances, freshman orientation programs, student-faculty relations, and school spirit.

Moreover, the "Union Building Operations" item should be of great interest to UH's representative, inasmuch as Hemenway hall was involved in considerable controversy this past year.

The presidents will also examine athletic management promotion, campus chest procedures, college celebrations, and honor systems.

Which all adds up to a giant sized schedule to swallow. The delegates should not develop cases of indigestion, however, what with the preponderance of "vacation" events to sooth their weary nerves.

OPINION PLEASE

Attendance: Voluntary Or Mandatory?

Should class attendance be mandatory or voluntary? George D. Stoddard, president of the University of Illinois, says it should be mandatory, in answer to a question posed to him by the University of Illinois student paper, the Daily Illini. He further dubbed the system of voluntary attendance practiced at the University of Chicago a "failure."

In defense of its system, the University of Chicago declared that a recent review of the 20 year old policy by the faculty "reaffirmed its belief that the policy is a satisfactory one."

FOLLOWING are some opinions voiced by UH students and faculty polled on the same question:

Tin Yau Goo, a&s junior: I don't believe in mandatory class attendance. In fact, I don't believe in any formality between faculty and students.

DR. HAROLD PALMER, professor of geology: Students are paying for their courses and it is up to them whether they want to cut or not.

Dr. Thomas Murphy, assistant professor of history: I think that a person who has a B average in all his courses should by college rule be allowed unlimited cuts. For other persons, three cuts allowed.

FUSAE OZEKI, a&s sophomore: I think it is up to the student because he knows what he is getting out of the course.

Dr. Karl Leebrick, professor of government: If students aren't interested enough to come, I'm not interested in them. But I have had very little trouble with attendance because there is a lot in the lectures that students would miss if they didn't come.

JOE SHELZI, a&s sophomore: I think that all students should be allowed four free cuts. All cuts above four should depend on the student's grades and on the discretion of the instructor.

Buildings Chief Completes First Year At UH

FRANK HINTON

Keeping 500 acres of campus and the buildings thereon in presentable condition is the never ending task of Mr. F. E. Hinton, superintendent of buildings and grounds, and his crew of 23 workers.

Mr. Hinton is rounding out his first year at UH, having come here last August.

"I GET wonderful cooperation from everyone," he said, "and I like my job a great deal."

"We are going to reorganize, and of course, the place needs more workers," he continued, "but we are getting along fine."

MR. HINTON was an inspector of schools for the department of public instruction before he came here, and spent a year looking over 70 schools. He has written "A Manual for School Janitors" which the DPI is planning to publish.

Before that, he worked 25 years for the Olaa and Wailuku sugar companies.

YOSHITO SAGAWA

By DANFORTH CHUN
Ka Leo Ass't Sports Editor
Yoshito Sagawa, cashier in the business office and former assistant to swim mentor Soichi Sakamoto, will in all probability be named assistant athletic director to Tommy Kaulukukui.

Sagawa was recommended for the position by a committee headed by Fred Steere, alumni representative to the board of athletic control.

THE BOARD REACTED favorably to the committee's recommendation, leaving only the formality of administrative officials transferring Sagawa from the business staff to the athletic department.

That Mr. Sagawa will be transferred is a foregone conclusion.

SAGAWA, A former diving champ, is remembered for developing many outstanding interscholastic swimmers at the Nuuanu Y. Herbert Kobayashi, Sam Seki, and the Kang brothers, Godfrey and Robert, were, at one time or another, pupils of his.

17-Man Squad Set To Vie In Invitational

University of Hawaii's fleet-footed thinclads will vie for top honors in the Stadium Invitational meet Thursday night, starting at 7:15.

Varsity team manager Wendell Crockett released the Green and White entry list, which was determined by an inter-squad track meet last Friday at Cooke field.

IN THE POLE vault pits will be Stanley Yoshioka, Shigeru Sano and George Uyeda. Uyeda will also enter the high jump, broad jump and some of the sprint events.

Mike Shintani, Herbert Loui and Allen Yokomoto grabbed posts on the roster as hurdlers. Loui is slated to perform in the discus event also.

SPRINTERS ON the UH list are Jimmie Olds and Francis "Buddy" Olivera, while Byron Meurlott is a threat in the shot put and discus events.

The mile and half-mile races will see Enos Plumley, Bob Westrop, Ellsworth Bush and Ben Liu running in the Rainbow lanes. Plumley is heavily favored to sweep the mile and half-mile events, having registered fast times in Friday's meet.

DAVID SCOBLE and Kalani Clisold are the 440-yard men on the list. Albert Olmos will be performing in the high jump, with Bob Ogata leaping over the broad-jump pit.

In all, 17 events are listed on the evening's program, which will be started off with the shot put and pole vault.

STUDENT TICKETS at 35c are being sold on campus by members of the track squad.

Coach of the Manoa cinderpathers is Moses Ome.

crews, which were victorious in their Aloha Week competitions.

THE SENIOR Open trophy for the Pacific championship will be at stake once again, and Al Vivas hopes to lead his senior crew successfully in retaining the award.

It will be remembered that the senior oarsmen upset the favored Honolulu and Healan clubs last year, winning by six lengths.

The three-day 1949 weightlifting contest also ended last Friday. Groaning their way to victory in the tournament were Allan Shizumura, Herbert Takiguchi, Robert Ho, Paul Kunichika and Paul Puaa.

THE INDIVIDUAL body weights and totals for the three standard carries were: Shizumura (123 lbs.), 480; Takiguchi (132 lbs.) 570; Ho (148 lbs.), 520; Kunichika (165 lbs.), 550; Puaa (heavyweight), 615.

Takiguchi was by far the outstanding lifter of the meet as he pressed 165, snatched 175 and cleaned and jerked 230.

DR. MCKENZIE presented medals donated by Kuhio Grill to each of the winners.

The contests were successful in every respect. Large, appreciative audiences witnessed the tournaments. Each day's program was highlighted by exhibitions in gymnastics and weightlifting by noted local performers.

UH Watercolor Exhibit Termed 'Eye Catching And Instructive'

Tax Expert Speaks Here Thursday

Mr. Torkel Westly, assistant tax commissioner, will speak on "Some aspects of our Territorial tax system," Thursday at 2 p.m. at Hemenway hall.

Sponsored by the Commerce club, his talk will be based on 14 years' experience with the Territorial tax office.

MR. WESTLY, a naturalized citizen, illustrates the American success story. Arriving in the Islands in 1923 as a Norwegian immigrant, he worked for the Hawaiian Agricultural company as office manager, and as accountant for a local auto dealer.

In 1935 Westly became a tax collector, working his way up to his present position of assistant tax commissioner.

Eye catching, colorful, and instructive are "Some Watercolor Techniques" now on display on the second floor lobby of Hawaii hall. The 25 picture display by well known Honolulu artists will be shown until May 13.

A wide variety of subjects, from fishing to mountains to a Chinese temple, are used by the watercolor experts.

USING AN ordinary scene of a peaceful countryside, Mr. Ben Norris has produced an excellent opaque water color by extensive use of barium yellow pigment.

Another impressive exhibit is one by George Post. It is a typical American scene—desolate looking outskirts of an urban community—painted with overlapping color planes used to off-set a large mill-like structure on the opposite end.

SEVEN OF Mr. J. Halley Cox's works are on display. It is this writer's opinion that he tends to over emphasize lines and his colors are usually too lifeless.

Dashing uniforms and glittering brass will be displayed in full splendor when University of Hawaii's Saber and Chain holds its annual military ball Friday, May 20, from 8 to 12 p.m. at the Maluhia.

Randy Oness' orchestra, widely known for its performances at the Royal Hawaiian and popular Honolulu nightclubs, has been engaged for the occasion.

ADDITION TO the gaiety of the evening will be the presence of high school ROTC cadets and the guests.

Tickets, priced at $1.50 per couple, may be obtained from club members or at the booth which will be set up in front of Hemenway hall.
